"I left the woods for as good a reason as I went there". Perhaps it seemed to me that I had several more lives to live, and could not spare any more time for that one."--Walden, Thoreau

1968 marks the end of our high school years. Although we go with a tinge of regret, we realize that, like Thoreau, we have several more lives to live. Keeseville represented security--old friends, familiar teachers, friendly halls. We followed the paths of others before us, and gingerly tested a few new trails of our own. But the growing years are almost finished. It's time to shed our sheltered lives--to become individuals, to carve our initials in the world. The unfamiliar is always somewhat frightening, but we willingly go forward. To record the memories of these past years, the Senior class presents Panther '68.

DEDICATION

When we recall the highlights of our years at Keeseville Central, it will be to our instructors to whom we owe our greatest tributes. There is no final way to assess the worth of a teacher except by those he has taught. Our insight has been deepened, and our knowledge magnified by one who will forever remain bold in our memory. We attribute our accomplishments to the able advice and teachings of . . .

Mrs. Helen Long.

Donna: Best of luck in ure you may attempt throughout life. Be good and always as you are. I am sure you will go far. Remember me and the class of '69. Be good to yourself or whoever ... Aff. Linda Administration and Faculty

ADMINISTRATION

Supervising Principal
EDWARD W. LONG

Our lives are constant decisions. What we become is in a large part determined by decisions. You make these out of your desires, preparations, goals, and ideals. May your desires be inspired by worthy goals and ideals and may the preparation the school has helped you make be sufficient to enable you to have a healthy, successful, and enriched future.

High School Principal
MR. W. G. TEWINKEL

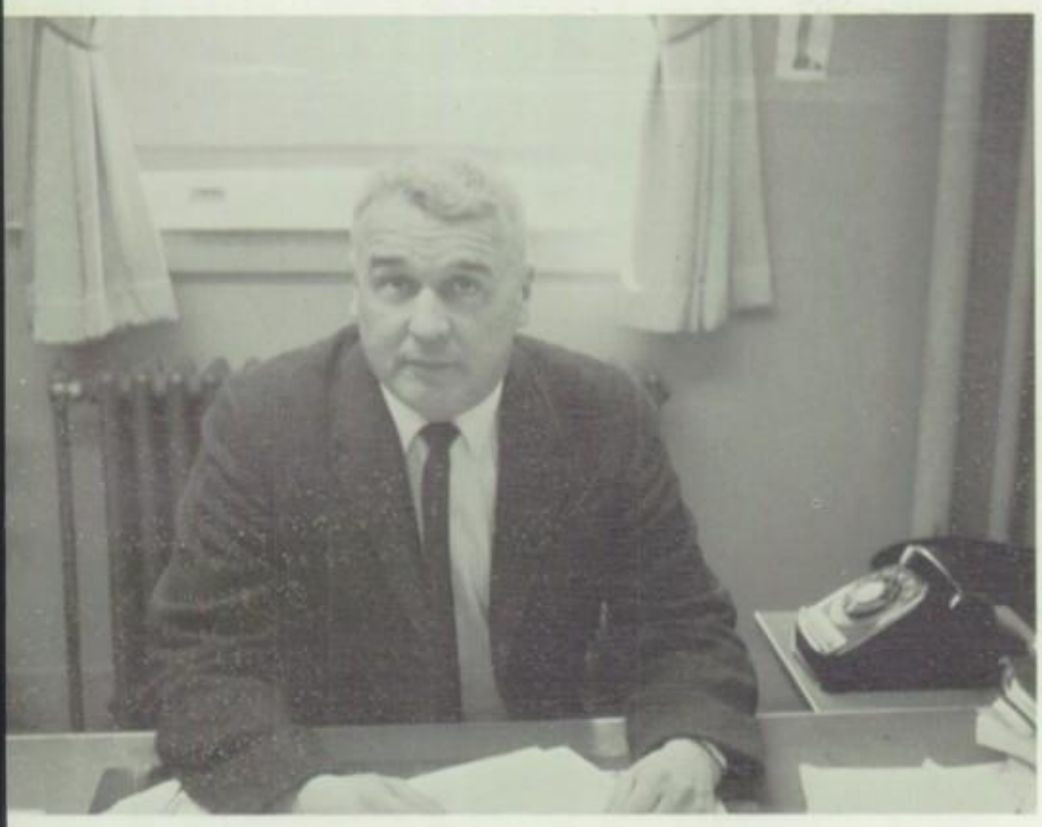
A successful start is one made in the right direction.

A satisfying finish results only when you have given your best.

Elementary Principal
JOHN N. CLARKE

All of us in the Elementary School want to wish the "Class of 1968" the best of luck in your future years.

ADMINISTRATION



Guidance Counselor

DANIEL J. MEEGAN

Yours has been an interesting and challenging life. Your future will be as great as your preparation.

The Best of Luck!

One more to go!

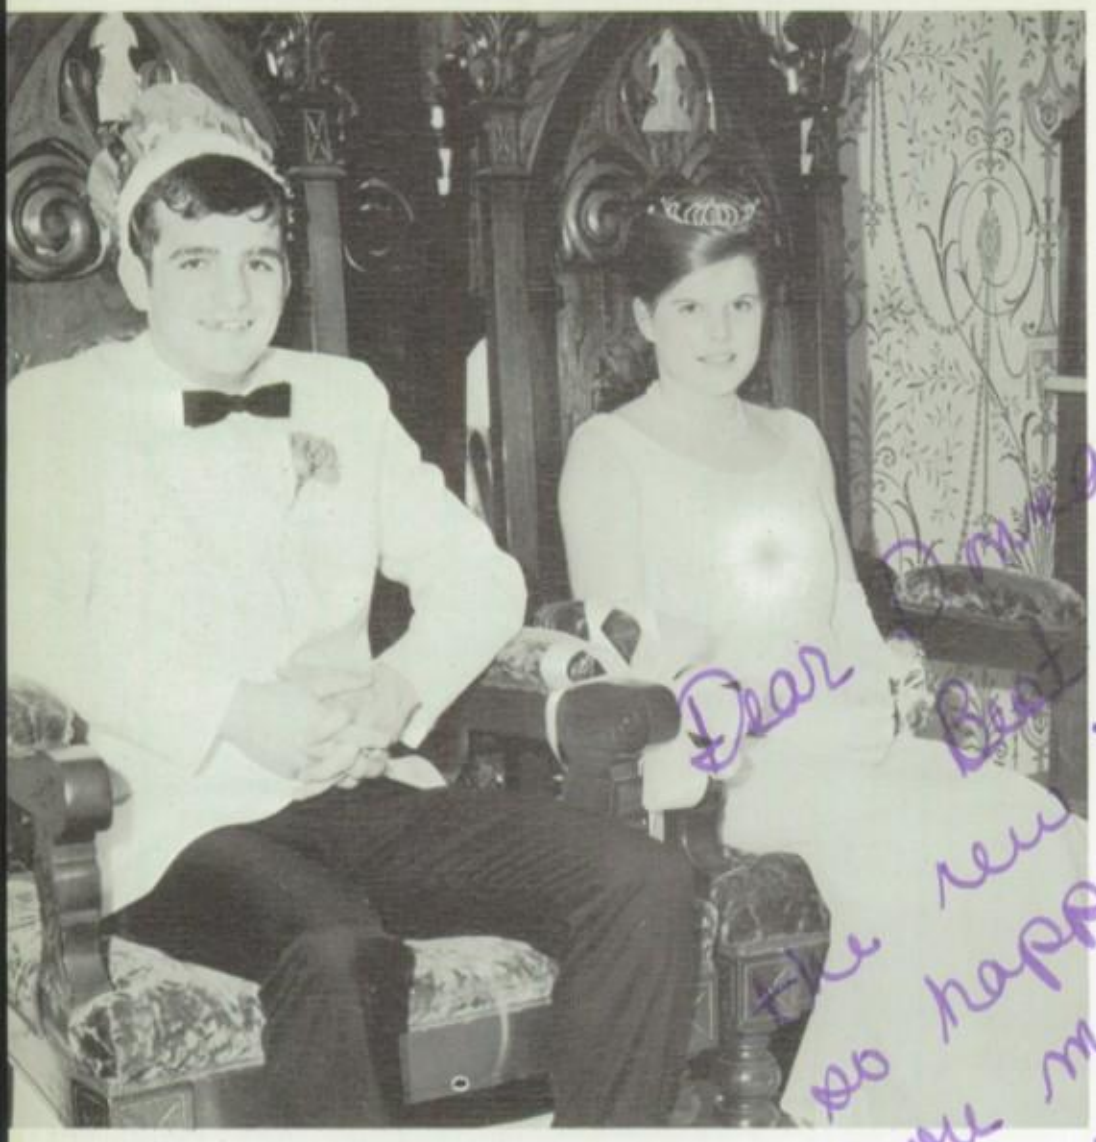
JUNIOR PROM

On May 20, 1967, Norman Bezio and Anne Sullivan were crowned King and Queen of our Junior Prom, "In the Misty Moonlight". "Misty" was played quietly in the background and enhanced the beauty of the event.



Norman Bezio (king)
Anne Sullivan (queen)

L to R: Lydia King, Mary Ann Heberts, Roberta King, Astrid Sobol, Anne Sullivan (Queen), Norman Bezio (King), Tim Thompson, Patrick Peryea, Larry Stanley, Steven Bullis.

Music, Maestro!

They reign at graduation.

Shake it up, baby!

Sock it to me!

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

The Senior class presented George M. Cohan's "Seven Keys to Baldpate" to a filled high school auditorium on November 16 and 17. Under the excellent direction of Mrs. Helen Long, the lines and scenes sped by with ease. The hours of hard practice, the fumbled scenes, and the butterflies faded into oblivion as each senior stepped out into the lights. When the curtain had closed for the last time, the only regret we had was that it was all over so soon.

Why me?

Just who do you think you are?

Keyed up? Unwind

Listen here, Max!

That's a No-No!

SENIOR BALL

QUEEN LYDIA KING

On January 13, 1968, at the Witherall Hotel, Lydia King was crowned 1968 Yearbook Queen. The members of her royal court were Julie Thompson, Astrid Sobol, Anne Sullivan, and Roberta King. Queen Lydia was chosen by yearbook subscribers and reigned at the Senior Ball. Steven Bullis, Panther editor, crowned the new queen, and Diana Schwab presented her with a bouquet of red roses.

SENIOR BAND

The concerts, May Festival, the freezing football games and the sweltering marches - all play a part in the Senior Band. Hours of practice were involved, but the results overshadowed the hard work of Mr. Santor and the band. We've gained pride and responsibility; we've met new people; we've had fun!

MR. RICHARD MOLHOLSKY

"WITH A VOICE OF SINGING"

Mr. Richard Molholsky, despite crowded conditions, lack of an accompanist, and the blitzkrieg attacks on the cafeteria, has molded our chorus into one of the best in the North Country. This year we have participated in both All-State and All-County chorus, as well as various invitational exchange programs. We present these pages as proof of the level of our achievements.

STUDENT COUNCIL OUR LEGISLATIVE BODY

The Student Council is an essential school organization. It is a forum for student expression - always open to new ideas and suggestions. By sponsoring a student bulletin board, assemblies, the Sportsmen's Banquet, and a pep rally, this year's council strove to involve more students in their school. The Winter Carnival, challenging and fun, can be expanded in the years ahead. As student interest grows, so will the activities of the Student Council.

KING AND QUEEN
Barry Devins
Jane Calkins

On February 16 the coronation of Barry Devins and Jane Calkins as King and Queen officially opened the first annual Winter Carnival of K.C.S. The long-awaited weekend finally became a reality with a day filled with skating and tobogganing races and ice sculptures. On Saturday, February 17, the festivities ended amidst a flutter of long beads, Al Capone suits, and the Charleston at the "Roaring Twenties" dance. Spearheaded by the Student Council and its president, Chris Allen, the Winter Weekend scored a complete success.

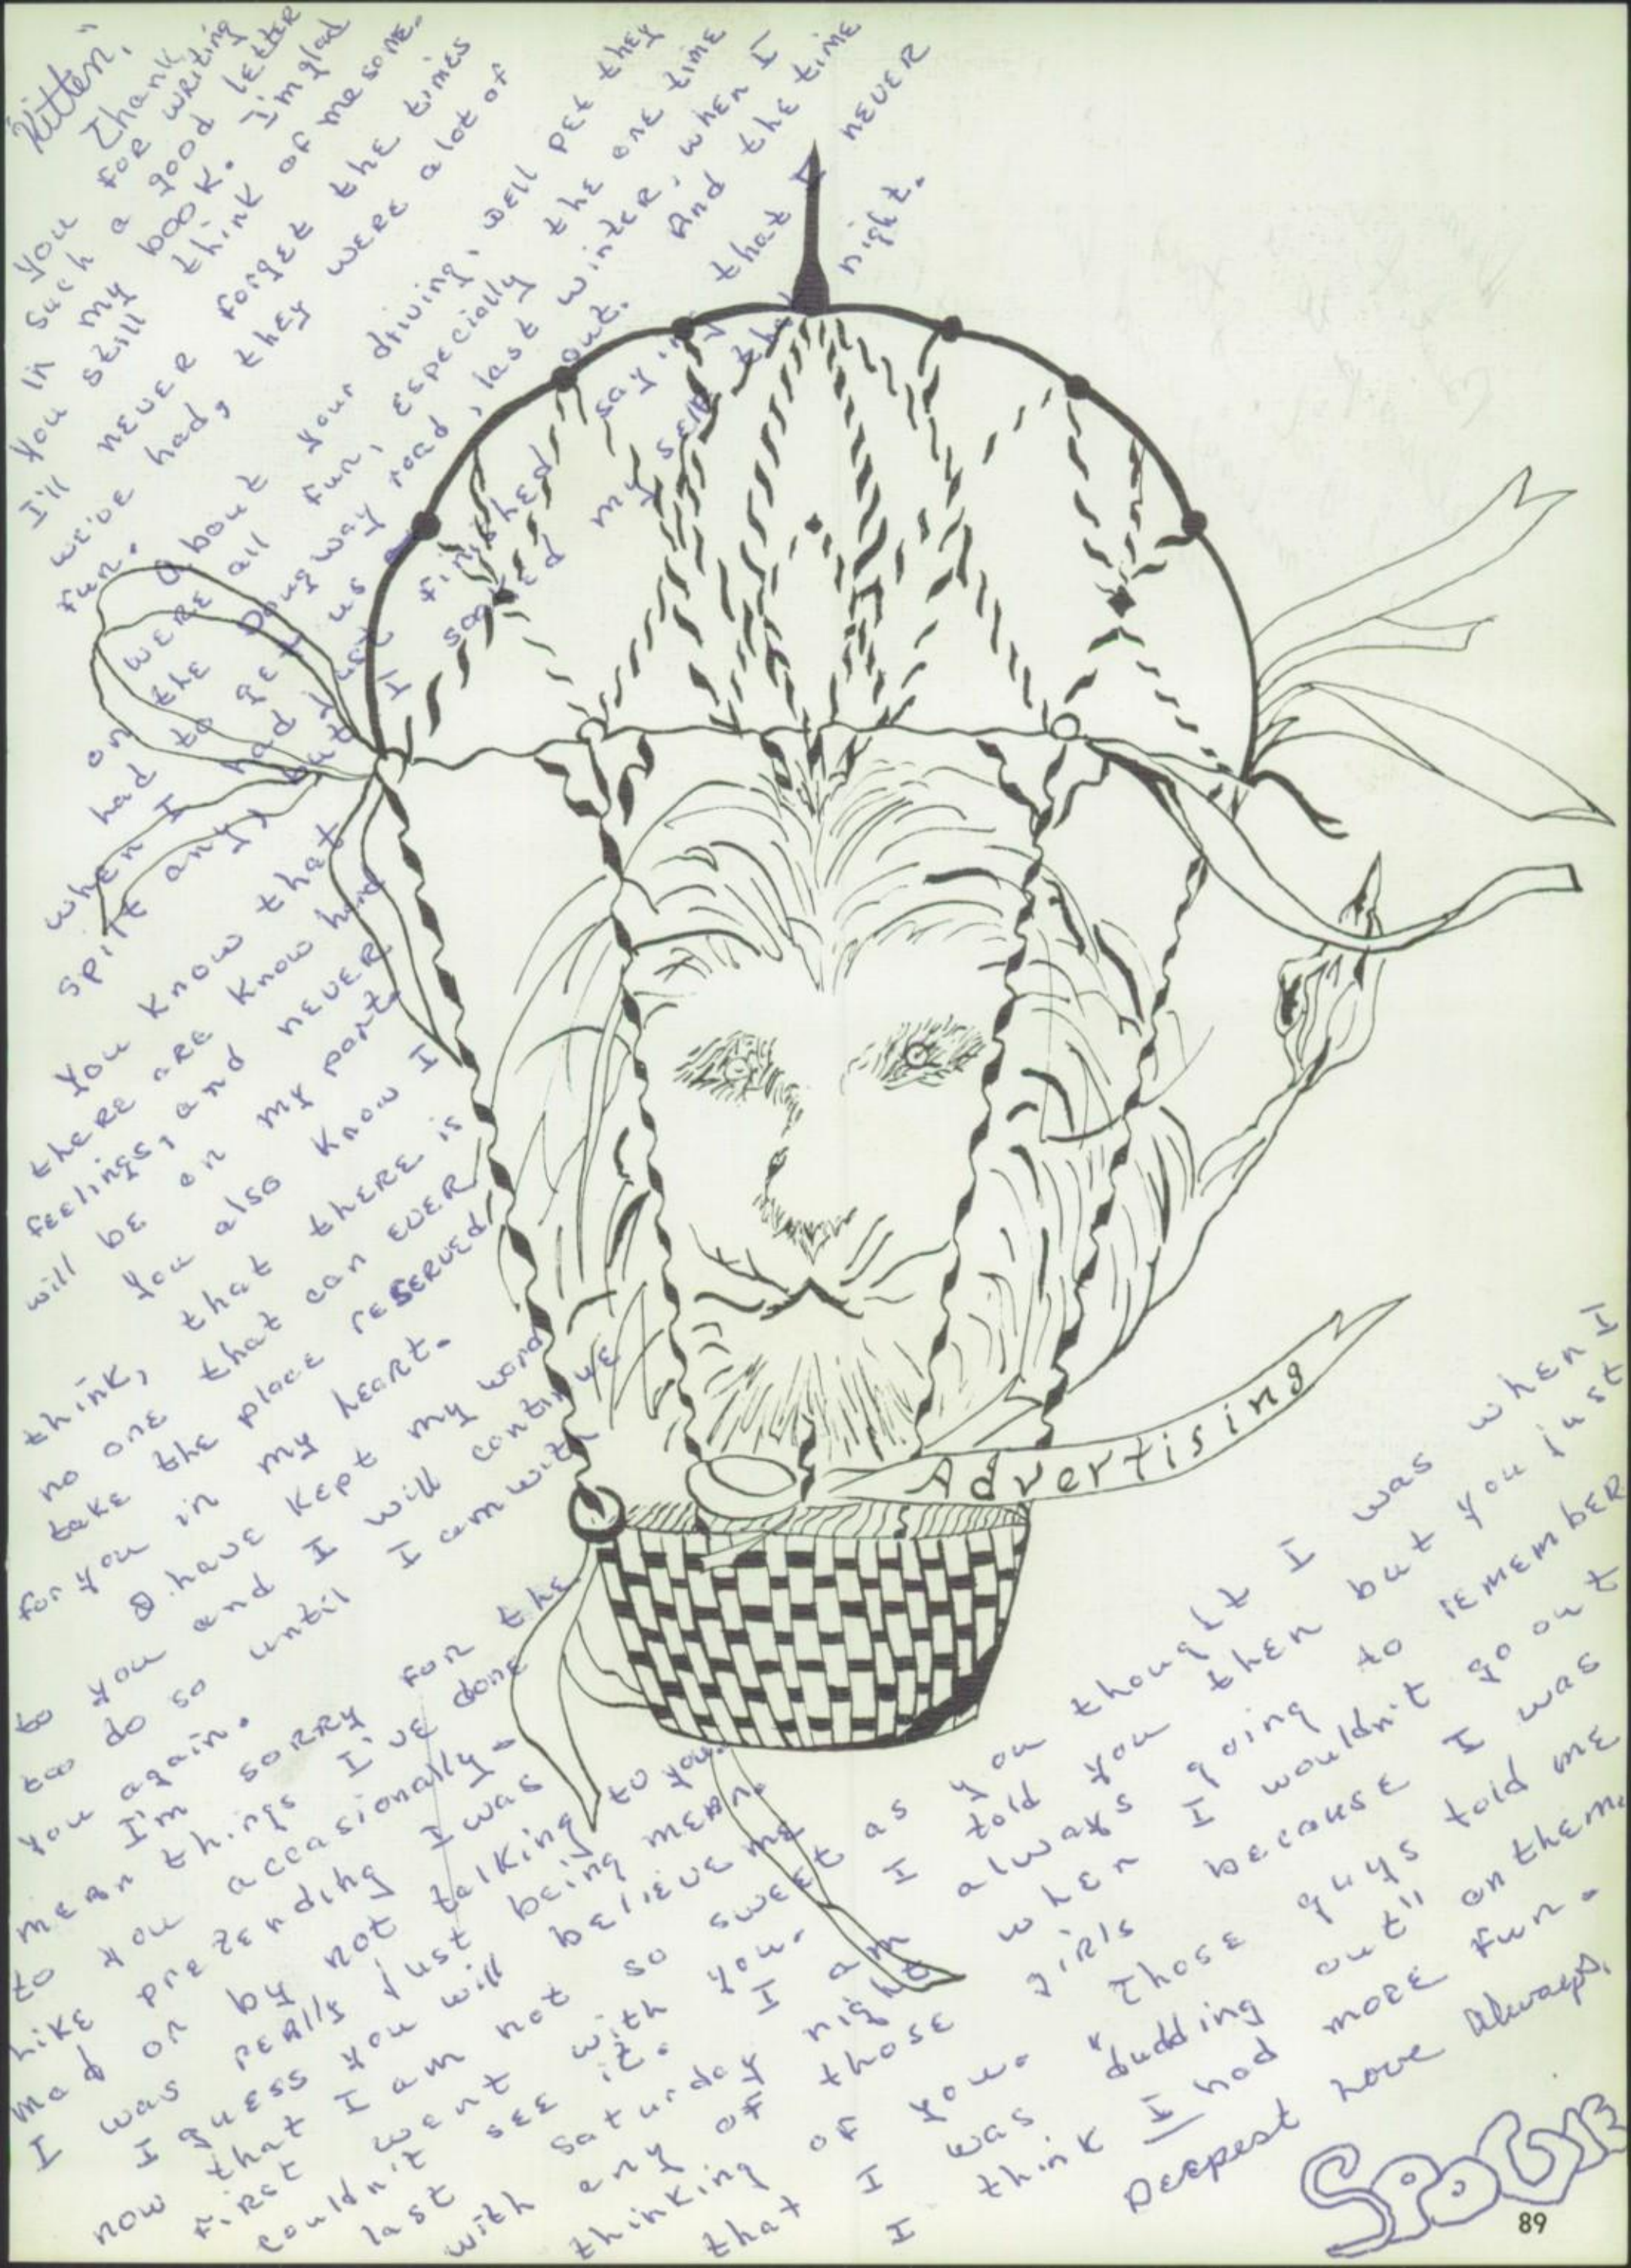
"The Underdog can and does Win."



Kitten,
Thank you for writing such a good letter in my book. I'm glad you still think of me sometimes. I'll never forget the times we've had, they were a lot of fun. Do you remember when I had to get Doug way back, last winter, when I was pretending I was sick and you came over to see me? I guess you will believe me when I say that I am not so sweet as you think, no one else knows how I really am. You also know that there is a place reserved for you in my heart. I have kept my word to you and I will continue to do so until I am with you again.
I'm sorry for the things I've done to you accasionally - like pretending I was mad on by not talking to you. I guess you will believe me when I say that being mean to you was the first time I went out with any of those girls since I saw you. I am not so sure about those guys I was thinking of you. I always told you I thought I was in love with you but you just couldn't see it. Those "dudding out" on them because I wouldn't go out with them. Deepest love always.

A gift for this year's graduates . . . free checking account service

You want to be sure you manage your money wisely, right? Of course.

So our graduation gift of free checking account service for one year will help you do that.

"How?" you say.

Glad you asked.

When you pay by check your quarterly statement will show what you've spent and where the money went.

And more.

Those cancelled checks will be proof you paid.
